

Announcement

Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, has announced that the price of the Ford Motor Company has been reduced from $2700 to $2400. This is the first time in the history of the Ford Motor Company that the price of a new car has been reduced. The reason for this is the fact that the Ford Motor Company has been able to produce cars more cheaply than ever before. This is due to the fact that the Ford Motor Company has been able to produce cars in larger quantities than ever before. This has enabled the Ford Motor Company to reduce the cost of production and thus the price of the car.

There is no question that the use of machine power on the farm is the greatest advance made in the development of agriculture in many years. It is making results as well as raising the standard of living on the farm to a much higher level. But because of the fact that the use of machine power is making results as well as raising the standard of living on the farm to a much higher level. Youngest Veteran of War, 10 Tells His Experiences. Richmond can boast of having one of the youngest enlisted men from this State, if not from the nation, when the history of Virginia's part in the world war is written.

Charney L. Ragland, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Vaughan, had reached the age of fourteen years at that memorable time when the Germans made their last gains toward Paris in the spring of 1918.

As he was going down Broad Street one Saturday morning a recruiting "regular" slapped him on the shoulder and asked him how he would like to be a real soldier.

The incident gave him the idea, and before the day was over he had enlisted at a local recruiting office and was on his way to Fort Thomas, Ky. That was May 27, 1918.

For two years his parents learned nothing of his whereabouts. It was thought that he had enlisted in the army, as he had often expressed a desire to join the American forces and go in search of Mrs. Vaughan's brother, Wendell Holmes Oliver, who was later killed on the Verdun front.

From Fort Thomas he was sent to Allentown, Pa., and in a few weeks he arrived in France, a proud member of the Evacuation Ambulance, Company 69. After the armistice he was returned to Camp Lee, where he finished his first year of school.

Not knowing how he would be received if he returned home and having nothing else to do, he could be re-enlisted in the cavalry service for another year. So fearful was the lad that he would be recognized that he only went to town once and then covered his face each time he passed under a street light, it is declared.

Charney states that he was miserable all the time because he thought of his parents and the concern they would have in not knowing of his location. Then one night he dreamed that he returned home and was received with open arms. For three succeeding nights he had the same dream, he says, so he decided to go back to his parents.

Charney's host of friends admire his pluck and courage, but it is only with the greatest coaxing that the war hero can be induced to tell his experiences. He is now in the Appomattox Agricultural High School.

Tobacco Growers Mean Business. A large number of tobacco growers of this county attended the meeting called for last Saturday to hear the 5 year contract explained. Mr. Ogg, the State secretary was present and read the contract and explained it to the meeting.

Hixbury. Mr. P. O. Adam, a student Hampton Sidney, preached in the Presbyterian church here last Sunday and notwithstanding the fact that two of his class mates, Messrs. Chatman Binford and Shakespeare Morris acted as chaperones this young man delivered a splendid sermon and since it has become known that he contented a search for Eve as soon as he makes good at College. The writer predicts that the Dawn of Day is very noticeable and we shall be glad to have Mr. Adam with us again.

Mr. Richard Fore is on the sick list having suffered the attack of a chill Monday.

Cleveland Lee Clement, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Clement, of Elson, died last Saturday and was buried on Monday at Olive Branch. Services by his pastor Rev. J. M. Moser, and the Prospect choir rendered a most appropriate elegy. Cleveland was an exceptional bright boy and being the only child the parents are greatly distressed and their only comfort is to look forward to the great reunion that is to come hereafter.

Quite a number of our farm are attended the tobacco growers club at Appomattox Saturday and Mr. Wilson Hix was appointed to canvass this section of the county with reference to signing the growers contracts. Mr. Floyd Gilliam had to see his share man for his share of some of their crop of tobacco.
